PROCESS LINK™

Manage and maintain regulatory compliance

Comprehensive procedural analysis to ensure optimal performance of your business operations

Features & Benefits

- Helps to ensure products remain in compliance with global regulatory and customer requirements
- Unique industry based approach that enhances the processes and controls used in the design, manufacture and distribution of products
- Covers product compliance relative to EMC, EMI, Safety, RF, Ecodesign, Product Environmental, data management, reporting, customer issues and more
- Proprietary technique with a foundation of 30+ years in managing product compliance
- Results are delivered on the spot
- Examines existing processes in an easy to understand questionnaire
- Covers all product life cycle areas from inception through end-of-life

- Easily adaptable to the maturity of the business
- Highlights solutions that are understandable as well as realizable to implement
- Results easily integrate with existing quality assurance systems or ISO schemes
- Pinpoints gaps between teams and how they should inter-relate effectively to ensure product compliance
- Customizable to specific client or corporate issues where independent viewpoints are needed
- Encourages discussion and brain storming throughout the session
- Offered in 1 day or 3 day on-site programs

Our experts seek to understand the full scope and work with you to implement effective solutions that are tailored to your needs.

Go Global Compliance